Facing the Challenge of the 1990's

Valerie Van Isler, Interim General Manager

As we move into the holiday season and the end of our 30th anniversary year, we look back to what WBAI has given you, our audience, during these three decades of broadcast history. We do so with a sense of accomplishment, a well-tempered pride, and a renewed commitment to continue bringing you some of the best in broadcasting for the coming years.

Throughout these demanding times, we have posed a challenge to the major media about what they reported and how they covered "the news." We have done breaking stories on important developments and investigated key issues such as the Iran-Contra connections, long before the networks and the newspapers picked them up. And we have won more than 30 of the major awards in the world of journalism for this courageous and sometimes dangerous work—from the Peabody Prize in the '70s, the Armstrongs in the '80s, to the George Polk and CPB Awards in 1990. We have also challenged the courts when the fundamental freedoms of speech and artistic expression were threatened—from our first amendment work on the Carlin Case to our current concerns about the restrictive aspects of the National Endowment for the Arts regulations. In this, as in so many other matters, WBAI has joined battle against some of the most powerful forces in this country by taking a stand to defend our constitutional liberties and protect our civil and human rights.

And now, we must meet the challenge of the '90s and the "new world order" which has emerged out of the decades of cold war. Once more, it is a perilous time for the community of nations and for all who seek world peace, true equity, and real justice both at home and abroad.

This is our holiday pledge to you—our WBAI community of members, listeners, and friends: we will continue to stand by the founding principles of Pacifica Radio to help bring forth a more peaceful world during this last decade of the twentieth century. We give thanks that you have been with us for all these years and extend the blessings of this time to you and your family. And we hope that you will be especially generous in your support of WBAI during this season of giving so that we can continue to give our best back to you.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
PACIFICA FOUNDATION
2207 SHATTUCK • BERKELEY 4 • CALIFORNIA

November 10, 1990 NOVEMBER 23, 1959
RELEASE IMMEDIATELY
NEW YORK CITY STATION FOR PACIFICA FOUNDATION

Pacifica Foundation...has acquired a new station in New York City.

Harold Winkler, Pacifica's President, made the announcement today. The new station is the third public service, listener-subscription outlet of the Foundation. Pacifica has operated KPFA since 1949, and KPFK in Southern California since July of this year.

The New York station, WBAI-FM, has been given to Pacifica by Louis Schweitzer, financier, who is active in Kimberly-Clark Corp.

"We are deeply grateful to Mr. Schweitzer for his handsome gift, and we intend to make this the most significant radio station in the country," Winkler said.

Pacifica will begin its New York operation in January, subject to FCC's approval....

Like the other Pacifica stations, the New York outlet will be devoted to the best in music and the spoken word. "Because of our independent status, Pacifica is free to express every shade of responsible opinion and free to explore familiar and new channels of artistic creativity," Winkler said.

WBAI covers fourteen million people in the New York metropolitan area, more than half of whom are FM listeners....

Winkler feels that the voluntary subscription basis of support frees Pacifica from the influences which are hampering commercial broadcasters, especially now.

Happy Holidays from all the WBAI Staff.

Please join us at the WBAI Annual Holiday Crafts Fair at Columbia University on the weekends of November 30, December 7, and December 14. This special edition of our Folio will tell you all about it!

From the Program Director

Andrew Phillips

I have been program director for one year now. Looking back, I see progress and changes I think are working well to serve the Pacifica mandate, excite and satisfy our audience, and provide our producer community with access to this enormously diverse audience.

As program director I have advanced and retreated, squirmed and dodged and then stuck out my neck waiting for the thud. I venture there is nobody who will say we do not need change in our programming at WBAI. Of course we do. But what?

We have a program council at WBAI. It is advisory to the program director. When changes are suggested they are discussed with this council. The system works as a kind of check and balance with the program director and often discussions reveal weaknesses and strengths in our lineup previously unnoticed.

We are currently making changes. There is a tendency at community stations like ours, where there is so much diversity, for this variety to overpower listeners, just as a stew too highly spiced can be inedible. We need to use our spices with care. Over the year we opened up our afternoons so we had eight hours a week of open program time. As new programs and producers emerged and brought series to our air, the free time diminished.

It is essential to keep the flow of programming moving, otherwise we face the danger of stagnation. For every powerful new program introduced, if we do not correspond with a program reduction elsewhere, we reduce the opportunity for a new program idea to flourish. I face this dilemma daily.

So as we move into 1991 expect more change. Expect some programs to change time, some new ones to consolidate, some old ones to retire. I expect you will respond, and I will try to listen and take whatever you feel into account. May you prosper and grow in every sense of the word in 1991. It will be a tough time. Let us not forget to laugh and love and let us make art as well as politics.

Stay tuned.

AIDS, ACT UP, GRAPHICS, MYERS, WBAI, AND ME

by Betsy Lenke

Betsy Lenke is a co-producer of AIDS: Paths to Self-Empowerment and Living (Thursdays, 2:30PM). Her comments here are her own.

The AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power is committed, through direct action, to ending the AIDS crisis. I became an ardent ACT UP participant the day Mayor Dinkins appointed Woodrow Myers Health Commissioner of N.Y.C. Myers is on the wrong, deadly wrong, side: he has in the past supported quarantine for people who have tested HIV-antibody positive and he has opposed needle exchange programs. But quarantine spreads disease because people will not seek health services if they fear detention, and drug users who participate in clean needle programs learn to not infect their partners, do not pass on AIDS factors to the next generation and stay alive to go to drug treatment. This is well documented.

A few very long years ago, there was no ACT UP. The promoted information about AIDS was: you get AIDS you die. There was no coverage of those living with AIDS, of those fighting through the morass of death sentence diagnoses, murderous suppression of information, lack of services. Before there was ACT UP, the SILENCE=DEATH Project sought to politicize the AIDS-decimated gay male community. In Hitler's regime, homosexual males were made to wear a pink, point-down, triangle; witches, lesbians were made to wear a black triangle. The Project printed SILENCE=DEATH over a point-up pink triangle to represent and encourage gay empowerment: "we'll never be silent again," "we won't be lead to mass graves." SILENCE=DEATH has been printed all over the world and in many languages; it has in spired ACTION=LIFE, INFORMATION=CHANGE, IGNORANCE=FEAR campaigns. Some Project artists joined Gran Fury artists' collective, which created "bloody hands" for the October 1988 demonstration at Food and Drug Administration headquarters. The demand: speedy access to drugs not yet approved. At the time the sticker was created, it said "one AIDS death every 30 minutes." Now in the U.S., among those diagnosed, it is one person every six minutes. This does not include the women whose female, "unique," manifestations of disease are not recorded, needle sharers who die of "junkie pneumonia," and others who, for a wide and criminal variety of reasons, are not represented by Centers for Disease Control statistics.

Of the media-driven perception that money is "being thrown at AIDS" research, education, and care: much funding gets cut after passage; much life-saving information gets excised, unfunded because it uses explicit language; research budgets go to high-cost, toxic drugs; and there is still no governmental committment to consistent, culturally appropriate, accurate information about prevention, immune enhancement, and home health care. In 1990 it's still not over. The hell of it is it could be. Governmental red tape, inter-agency jealousies, and indus-try-determined research are killing us. For a variety of reasons, there will be immune compromising conditions in the future. If inadequate health care policy, delivery, edu-cation, access, freedom of clinical choice, and community control are not changed during the course of this pandemic, if nothing systematically changes, each of us will be an AIDS criminal.

For information about ACT UP's many committees—youth education, women's issues, needle exchange, and others—call ACT UP in your area.

International AIDS Awareness Day
8:30AM–8:00PM

8:30 Any Saturday. David Rothenberg kicks-off our special programming with a look at the city's inaction concerning the AIDS crisis.

10:30 Lunchpail. Live radio with Paul Gorman.

12:30 AIDS Talk. WBAI continues International AIDS Awareness Day coverage with a 90-minute open-line discussion where listeners will be able to comment on issues relating to AIDS and HIV-illness. You will have the opportunity to discuss the current crisis in health care, issues confronting care partners, and today's "A Day Without Art" programs in the Metropolitan area. Host/producer Larry Gutenburg, who will anchor the open line, will be joined in the studio by other people with AIDS (PWAs), activists, and care partners with updates on the crisis in the city and the world. Scheduled guests include Larry Kramer, one of the founders of G.M.H.C. and Wayne Fisher, a diagnosed public school teacher who teaches his students about AIDS.

2:00 AIDS and Women: A Paths to Self-Empowerment and Living Special. Bob Lederer, Betsy Lenke, and Nicholas Cimorelli bring you up-to-date usable information and resources, highlighting issues and activism surrounding girls' and women's clinical health access concerns. Why is AIDS undiagnosed, under diagnosed, misdiagnosed, untreated, undertreated, underreported, inadequately studied, unfunded, unreimbursable, unacknowledged in women? What information and services should be available at this stage in the pandemic? Why isn't it available? What are the realities around the world? Join us for this crucial report.

3:30 AIDS in the Latino Community. Join host Gonzalo Aburto for an in-depth discussion of how AIDS is affecting the Latino community.

5:00 Commemoration of A Day Without Art. Sue Renee Bernstein and the WBAI Arts Department bring you coverage of the day's events commemorating A Day Without Art. Included will be performance art, speeches, and readings from the Judson Memorial Church and elsewhere.

7:00 AIDS and Housing: A Housing Notebook Special. WBAI wraps up its coverage of International Aids Awareness Day with an exploration of the problems HIV positive people face in today's housing market. Lack of rent money, inadequate home care services, and discrimination by landlords all contribute to this ever growing problem. Hosted and produced by Scott Sommer of the Metropolitan Council on Housing, with special guests.

8:00 Radio Unnameable. Live radio with Bob Fass.

10:30 World Dance Party. African, Caribbean, and Afro-Cuban music, produced by Al Angeloro.

1:00 Labbrish. Live radio with Habte Selassie.

Sunday 2

5:00 Soundtrack. All about the cinema with Paul Wunder.

7:00 Martin Sokol's Through the Opera Glass. Regina Fiorito Sokol, Executive Producer. The 150th anniversary of the premiere of La Favorite is commemorated with a broadcast of the classic 1912 "complete" of this opera.

9:30 Here of a Sunday Morning. Early music with Chris Whent.

11:30 Hard Work. Live radio with Mike Feder.

1:00 Con Sabor Latino. Issues and music from the Latino community, with Mickey Melendez and Hernando Alvaricci.

5:30 Latino Journal. Award-winning journalist Santiago Nieves covers the issues, concerns, and events of the tri-state area's growing Latino community. Tune in to New York's longest-running, hard-hitting Latino radio magazine!

6:00 The WBAI Evening News, including a review of the week's stories.

6:30 Ryan's (Only in) New York. Join host Lee Ryan with the Usual Suspects—Joyce West, Mark Foley and Patrick O'Conner. Announcing a new weekly feature—The Only Honest Ski Report From New England. Patrick O'Connor, one of the show'sUsual Suspects—and its Cultural Commissar—will be reporting by telephone every Sunday evening from Vermont. He says he'll have none of "the usual [deleted by the FCC]," and if there's no snow he'll say so. He'll also let WBAI listeners know if the conditions are too icy, too wet, too cold, whatever. "I love skiing," says the aging ski instructor, "but if conditions are lousy, why should people waste their money in New England when they can waste it in New York? And more comfortably." O'Connor, award-winning editor, publisher, former arts and dance reviewer for Channel 13, qualified as a professional ski instructor two seasons ago. Hear him only on WBAI's Only in New York, live from Vermont.

7:30 Outlooks. Lesbian Entrepreneurs. Have you ever dreamed of being your own boss? Tune in and find out what the experts have to say about owning your own business. Join host Aurelio Hovell in a panel discussion including four innovative lesbian proprietors. A Gay and Lesbian Independent Broadcasters (GLIB) production.

8:30 Emanations. Live radio with Bernard White and friends: music and issues focusing on the African-American community.

10:30 The Golden Age of Radio. Vintage radio with Max Schmid. From 44 years ago to the day (that's 1946) we present Dark Venture "Room 206," starring Herb Butterfield and Ben Alexander. And in our ongoing Jack Benny series, it's time for the premiere of Jack's new picture Love Thy Neighbor, but he's sick in bed (12/1/40). We'll also hear radio promos for the film with Jack Benny, Mary Martin, Fred Allen, and more!

12:30 News Rebroadcast

Welcome to the 19th Annual WBAI Holiday Crafts Fair!

We're delighted that you could join us as the WBAI Holiday Crafts Fair celebrates its nineteenth year of presenting the finest in American Crafts for your lasting enjoyment. This year's show is featuring over the course of its three weeks (Nov. 30–Dec. 2, Dec. 7–9 and Dec. 14–16), the handcrafted work of over 300 carefully-selected professional craftspeople from some 30 states. We invite you to meet and talk to these gifted artisans and purchase their beautiful work . . . you will find literally hundreds of unique gift ideas and affordable shopping items for your friends, loved ones and/or yourself (you deserve something special, too).

• As you travel throughout the two floors of Ferris Booth Hall, you will go (from area to area) "discovering" wonderful handmade work . . .it is by design that the WBAI CRAFTS FAIR takes place in a series of contiguous rooms and open spaces in Ferris Booth. We work hard to make this unique showcase and sale of American crafts both intimate and comfortable. And remember: each week of the Fair features a new and different group of participating craftspeople (three weekends/ three major craft events), so plan your schedule accordingly!

• We are very pleased to announce the return of our Gift-Wrapping Booth, located across from booths 5–10 on the first floor (please consult the map on the back cover). At the Gift-Wrapping Booth, you'll find beautiful boxes, wrapping materials and shopping bags for the gifts you buy at the Fair (all at reasonable prices).

Well, that's it. Thanks again for coming to the 19th Annual WBAI Holiday Crafts Fair, the oldest and largest winter crafts show in America . . . by the way, we know that this has probably not been the easiest of years in a lot of ways, but . . .this is a special place (and a special time of year), so . . .have a wonderful time!

Happy Holidays,

Matt

To Gilbert Lesser

It is with much sadness that we note the death, earlier this year, of our friend and colleague, Gilbert Lesser. Gil was an extraordinary designer and artist and , very simply, a kind and generous man. We dedicate this year's Fair to his memory.

Panama Remembered

Bodies of civilians killed during the U.S. invasion of Panama

1:00 "Operation Just Cause": A Look Back at the United States' Invasion of Panama. In the late night hours of December 20, 1989, President George Bush addressed the nation to inform people of a major military action taking place in Panama. For yet another time this century, the United States was sending the armed forces into an independent nation in this hemisphere in the name of national security. Over 26,000 troops were sent into Panama to arrest one man, General Manuel Antonio Noriega, the commander of the Panamanian Defense Forces. The media asked very few questions, and human rights groups have reported thousands of lives lost.

WBAI was on top of the story from the very beginning. While the major networks went along with State Department press briefings and defense department footage, WBAI did its own investigations, covering developments for four straight days with live reports, analysis, and historical perspectives.

On this first anniversary of the U.S. invasion of Panama, WBAI takes you back to that fateful day in December with archive tape, updates on the current situation in Panama, and a critical analysis of the current U.S. military buildup in the Persian Gulf—the latest example of Washington's desire to be the world's unchecked cop.

Join producers Robert Knight (winner of the prestigious George Polk Award for his coverage of Panama), Laura Flanders, Valerie van Isler, Rosemari Mealy, Samori Marksman, Mimi Rosenberg, and others for this report, and stay tuned for up-to-the-minute reports on the crisis in the Persian Gulf.

Backtalk!

Dear Andrew,
This letter is for your Backtalk section in the Folio.

I first ran into wonderful WBAI in the 1970s. It was then that I first heard Angela Davis, and afterwards Dennis Bernstein, Valerie Van Isler, Bernard White, Amy Goodman, and Larry Holmes of Workers World Party. One of my favorite hosts is Robert Knight, an ultra-talented journalist who has received some of the highest honors for his work around the Panama invasion.

Of all the stations on the air today in NYC, to me when it comes to progressive, multi-national, multi-racial radio (something that's not found too much in so-called "liberal" NYC), without a doubt WBAI is light years ahead of the rest. Plus, you don't have any corporate dictators telling you what should be censored. I hope your format leans more to the left in the near future, however WBAI is doing a great job for all working class and poor New Yorkers.

In solidarity, Comrade Eugene
New York City

Dear Mario,
I thought I'd take a minute to thank you and the staff of WBAI, first for allowing us to be part of your event on Sunday, and secondly for the community service award that we received from you. This, in addition to the extensive radio coverage that the issue received on Saturday (not to mention before and in the future), is another reminder of the unique and vital way that WBAI serves the otherwise ignored voices in New York City. You're everything a media outlet should be: hip, open, and friendly. Thanks for all of it.

Bright moments, Larry White

Dear Sir:
I wish to express my thanks to WBAI for programs such as The Africa Report. Those of us who want in depth coverage of Africa appreciate programs such as this.

Sincerely yours, S. King

Hey Gang,
I'm sending along another $5.00 on top of my subscription (best I can do) for a couple of reasons.

First, my appreciation for the day of programming about John Lennon, who touched me so deeply; and memories of him always will.

Second, I recently secured a job at a natural food store, and for the 9 and 1/2 hours I'm there, I am subjected to the most shit-awful commercial crap (first KJOY and now some other horror) which is driving me up the goddamned wall, and screw the FCC and all the other obscenity police if they don't like the language of this letter...this kind of "happy" talk, non-talk, all these people who couldn't care one fuck about what they broadcast as long as it pleases the advertisers...that's obscene!

There's aspects at 'BAI that trouble me: the station has become too stylized for me. For instance: the number of producers who will not maintain a discussion with anyone they disagree with (rudeness and hostility fairly often instead). But the fact is that this is radio by people who care about what they're doing— that's what's important. And that's what I miss while I'm in the store (I used to do freelance work and could take a radio with me.) For the first time, I find myself wishing I could wear one of those walk-things, but I doubt the boss would go for it.

Dear WBAI,
A hearty thanks to your station and its many announcers who gave our "Stop Jesse" benefit many free plugs.

Because of the help of folks like you, we were able to send several thousand dollars to North Carolina to help defeat Helms.

Thanks again, Will Williams

Dear Charlie,
I am delighted to learn that you will be doing the WBAI art commentary and will save Thursday afternoons to be part of the devoted listenership. I like to think of myself as one of the KPFA founders since Lew Hill and I used to discuss the idea of listener-sponsorship in the Civilian Public Service-Citizen Conservation Corps Camp in the mountains far into the freezing nights.

For a while I did a fifteen-minute weekly commentary, mailing it to San Francisco. Lew wanted me to go out as program director—but there was deadly infighting which has always continued and which finally helped to kill Lew himself. I still miss him.

Very much love, Uncle Roy (Finch)

Dear WBAI,
Richard B. Isles has a fine groove going on Friday mornings and it's improving. Let it be. I'm a subscriber from the beginning.

Dear Lauren Comiteau,
The person in enclosed photograph sometimes uses the alias Captain Blood, sometimes Billy Bones. But he is, in reality, my four year old son Daniel, and you'll note that his Halloween costume includes the WBAI t-shirt he received with my subscription several years ago.

I think the subliminal message he's sending has something to do with threatening a one-way walk on the plank for those who freeload off listener-sponsored radio without paying dues, a sinister form of pirate radio.

So I send the photograph along with permission to publish it if it can be of help in fundraising or hooking new subscribers.

In solidarity, Bob Wiener

WBAI Folio,
I have recently lost a job within the social justice movement due to budget problems. Since I am an ordained minister, I came up with the idea of doing personalized and reasonably priced weddings and rites of gay union. I wish I could add a contribution for WBAI today, pero no tengo dinero ahora. I, however, pledge to give WBAI 10% of my earnings from this service. How's that for tithing?

I am particularly dedicated to the Undercurrents program. While the information there often upsets and angers me, it does keep me aware and moves me to action for peace, justice, and equality. Thank you all so very much. WBAI is an oasis in the desert of radio and TV news coverage. Keep "the faith" and continue to make free speech a reality in the New York area.

Peace, R.H.W.

Dear Eric Williams,
Muchas gracias! Thank you so much for playing New Music from Spain, your programs on the 11th and 12th of September, including the night you sat in for Robert Knight on Earthwatch.

I always want to know what is going on in Spain as far as their music is concerned. I don't like the new as much as the old—but I'm happy to know what is happening!
